2 The Special Court under A.P Land Grabbing (Prohibition) Act,

B.R.K.R.Bhavan , Tank Bund Road, Hyderabad.

.....RESPONDENTS

Petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the affidavit filed herein the High Court may be pleased to issue a writ, order or direction, more particularly one in the nature of Writ of Certiorari, calling for the records connected with the Order and Decree passed in L.G.C.No.125 of 1998 dt.29-03-2005 by the 2nd Respondent quashing and by declaring that the order is illegal, arbitrary, baseless, unreasonable and colourable exercise of powers by the 1st respondent and violative of Articles 14 and 21 of the Constitution of India.

Counsel for the Petitioner : MR.G.S.REDDY

Counsel for the Respondents : GP FOR REVENUE

The Court made the following :

O R D E R

(Per Sri Justice J.Chelameswar)

Aggrieved by an order and decree in L.G.C.No.125 of 1998, dated 29.03.2005, the 1st respondent therein preferred the present writ petition.

The above-mentioned L.G.C. was filed by the State under Section 8(1) of A.P.Land Grabbing (Prohibition) Act, complaining that 19 respondents therein grabbed certain piece of land belonging to the Government.

The Tribunal by the impugned order declared that all the respondents therein are the land grabbers and directed them to vacate the land in dispute and handover vacant possession. Admittedly, the petitioner has not adduced any documentary evidence to establish any semblance of his right before the Tribunal.

In the circumstances, we do not see any merit in the writ petition and the same is therefore dismissed at the admission stage itself. No costs.
